On 27.08.2007, we had granted one last opportunity to enable the petitioner to find out a buyer of the mortgaged property by stating that the time granted to him is up to 17.09.2007. It was further noticed that if he remained unable to find out a buyer of the mortgaged property, then his petition would be deemed to be dismissed.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that till date no buyer could be found.

In view of the above, we dismiss the writ petition with liberty to the respondent to proceed in accordance with law.

However, it shall remain open to the petitioner to participate in any auction proceedings or make the payment in accordance with law.
